Employers must make accommodations to disabled applicants and employees where the accommodation does not impose an undue hardship on the employer. Under Michigan law only, disabled employees and applicants may request an accommodation of their disability by notifying the Company in writing of the need for accommodation within 182 days of the date the disabled individual knows or should know that an accommodation is needed. This requirement does not apply to an individual's right under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Failure to properly notify the Company may preclude any claim that the employer failed to accommodate the disabled individual.

I hereby release the Company (and its employees and prospective employees) you and them from any liability whatsoever as a result of any such inquiries and disclosures and this release from liability does not waive or prohibit an individual from filing a charge of discrimination under the laws enforced by the EEOC.

2. I agree my employment, compensation, and benefits are "at-will." This means I am free to terminate my employment, at any time, for any or no reason at all, with or without cause, and with or without notice. Similarly, the Company may terminate the employment relationship and/or change my compensation or benefits at any time, for any reason or no reason at all, with or without cause, and with or without notice. No amendment or exception to this at-will status can be made at any time, for any reason, except by the Company's President and it must be in writing, directed to you personally, and signed by him/her. I waive any limitation periods to the contrary. I further agree that if I should bring any non-statutory action or claim arising out of my employment against the Company, in which the Company prevails, I will pay to the Company any and all such costs incurred by the Company in defense of said claims or actions, including attorney fees. I also agree all such claims shall be decided by a judge and not a jury. I specifically waive my right to have a jury decide the outcome of any such claims. I also agree to not be a member of a class action lawsuit against the Company. This jury waiver, class action waiver, and shortened statute of limitations shall apply to any claim against the Company, its parent, successors and assigns and its/their current or former employees, members, directors, officers, or agents.
